

Chelsea Story

Vice President. Occupier Advisory & Transaction Services

CBRE

As a member of CBRE's Occupier Advisory & Transaction Services team, and the National Life Sciences practice group, Chelsea Story brings years of unparalleled real estate experience to her clients in and around the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. Chelsea quickly rose to her current position after demonstrating her prowess in navigating the multifaceted needs of her occupier clients. With Chelsea, clients can expect white-glove service from start to finish as the commercial real estate expert guides her prospects through the entire real estate life cycle from location and site selection, transaction management to move in and future planning. Chelsea's impressive roster of clients include some of the most exciting technology and biotech companies in the world, all have entrusted Chelsea to help their brand achieve their business goals through the power of real estate.